The screenshot shows a wireframe of a login and sign-up interface in Figma. The left sidebar lists components: 'Log In' (selected), 'Enter Email', 'Enter Password', 'Remember Me' (checkbox), 'Forgot Password?' (link), 'Log In' (button), 'Sign Up Page', 'Enter Email', 'Enter Password', 'Enter Password', 'Enter Password', and 'Log In'. The main canvas displays two pages: 'Login page' and 'Sign Up Page'. The 'Login page' contains a smartphone icon, a stick figure icon, input fields for email and password, a 'Remember Me' checkbox, a 'Forgot Password?' link, and a large blue 'Log In' button. The 'Sign Up Page' contains a stick figure icon, input fields for email and password, and a large blue 'Log In' button. The right sidebar shows the 'Design' tab with properties for selected elements like 'X: 100 Y: 100 W: 100 H: 100' and a preview of the element.
